

The Portland Community Chorus (PCC) is a skilled ensemble of more than 130 musicians. PCC dates back to the 1950's, and is currently directed by Rob Westerberg, who is Choral Director at York High School. He is past President of the Maine Music Educators Association, and has guest conducted nearly fifty choirs throughout New England. He continues his tenure as Senior High Choral Director for Maine Youth Summer Music (MYSM) Program at the University of Maine in Orono.

The Chorus annually performs twice a year, once in December and again in early May, offering a variety of classical, folk, and seasonal works. The chorus is accompanied by Jan Thomas, and often has orchestral accompanists. The chorus usually performs at one of the area high schools in the greater Portland area.

In addition to the two annual concerts, PCC also brings its enthusiasm for song to area nursing, assisted-living, and group homes in an active Outreach program. They are also the core group for the Portland Symphony Orchestra's Magic of Christmas chorus, a Maine tradition since 1980.

Please help the chorus continue to bring interesting and high-quality choral music to the community, through either an advertisement or a donation.

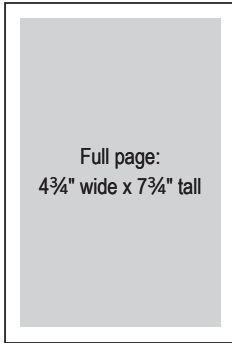

Thank you.

The mission of the Portland Community Chorus is to develop artistic excellence and share a passion for choral music with our community through performance, education and public outreach.
